NOTES OF THE BOXERS.

Jim Buckley told the writer to-day that he recently accepted terms from Jim Coffroth for Tommy Murphy to fight Willis Ritchie twenty rounds in San Francisco on Admission Day, Sept. 9, but as Murphy's wife is not well she has saked Tommy not to make the trip to the Coast. Accordingly the hout has been called off. Buckley eald Murphy and Ritchie may fight some time in October.

Gover Hayes, the Chicago lightweight, who was to have fought Leach Cross a six-round bout at the Olympia A. C. of Philadelphia on Sept. 4, has called off the bout and has sailed for Australia.

BY JOHN POLLOCK. W that the ten-round bout be-tween Jack Johnson and Joe Jeanette has been voluntarily off by Jess and Eddie McMahon. managers of the St. Nicholas A. C. on account of public opinion, Johnson has come forward with another statement to the effect that he is through with the game for good and that on Sept. I he will formally announce his retirement from the ring "forever." When the big champion received word from the McMahon brothers that they had declared the contest off Johnson merely smiled and said: "I had an idea that they would not allow me to fight Jeanette in New York and that is the reason I did not go ahead with my plans for training. The calling off of the bout does not worry me, for it means that I won't fight again. I simply wanted to fight Jeanette to show certain people that I wasn't all in as they claimed. I will not accept another match with Jeanette no matter who wants me to

NOTHER track record is daughting from the belt of Johnny Albright, the Denver speed phenom. In the Stadium-Motordrome he led his op-ponents all the way, won by ten miles and hung up a mark of 38 minutes 421-5 seconds. The former best time for the distance on this track was 28 minutes distance on this track was 29 minutes distance on this track was 39 minutes 172-5 seconds, made by Albright last week. George Lochnar of Syracuse finished second in the race with Ferdie Meroler of Brooklyn third. Mike Costello and Billy Wray also rode. On the fifth mile Wrays' machino blew a tire, catapulting the rider fifty feet along the track. Wray was not seriously injured, and he pluckily scrambled to his feet and dragged his mount out of the path of the other riders.

GIBBONS AT LAST ENTERS RANKS OF MIDDLEWEIGHTS

St. Paul Phenom to Meet Eddie M'Goorty in This City on Sept. 25.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.-At last Mike Gibone is to enter the ranks of the middleweights. The St. Paul phenom has igned to meet Eddie McGoorty inscheduled ten-round bout at St. Nicholas Rink, New York, Sept. 25. The middleveight bout will take the place of the ohnson-Jeanette encounter, which was called off after the New York Boxing Commission announced their refusal to Empire State.

According to Manager Marty Forking o'clock for Cibbons. That will be a pretty fine squeeze for the Oshkosh star, but he claims that he can get that low and he strong.

eading contender for middleweight titu out of the reckoning. The latter is limit, but has insisted on calling him-self a welter. He has confined his opponents to welterweights and fifth rate light middleweights. Against this class Whether be can do as well against a full-fledged middleweight of McGoorty's ability is the question the fans ar anxious to see nettled.

McGoorty started training to-day fo his bout with Australian Dave Smith,
